CONSENT ORDER OF REMAND

Underwriters at Lloyd’s of London (“Underwriters”) removed this case from Horry County Court of Common Pleas on November 14, 2016. Underwriters also contemporaneously filed a motion to dismiss or stay [Doc. 5] and Motion to Sever [Doc. 6]. On June 9, 2017, the Court was informed that Underwriters and Plaintiff’s settled their dispute and that the aforementioned motions are moot. From a review of the petition for remand and the motions before the Court it is clear that it has always been Underwriters’ position that the claims against the non-diverse co-defendants belong in state court and no other party has argued otherwise. In light of the settlement between Underwriters and Plaintiffs, the motions are denied as being moot and the matter shall be remanded to the Horry County Court of Common Pleas.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
